

AARS / GLU Alumni Summer School Programme 2018 in Brazil

	Tuesday 7.8.	Friday 10.8.	Saturday 11.8.	Sunday 12.8.	Monday 13.8.	Tuesday 14.8.	Wednesday 15.8.	Thursday 16.8.
	CUT/São Paulo	Unicamp/Campinas	Boracéia	Boracéia	Boracéia	Boracéia	Boracéia	Boracéia
				Breakfast 7.30 - 8.45	see day before	see day before	see day before	see day before
				Parallel sessions				Parallel sessions
9.00 - 10.30	9am: Loading luggage into the bus at Hotel Braston; 9.30am: bus transfer to CUT; 10am at CUT:	10 am - 5 pm at Institute of Economics/UNICAMP (room 3): GLU International Steering Committee Meeting (two alumni will participate) / Free time for other alumni / Lunch at Unicamp	8.30am: Transfer from Hotel Matiz to Summer School location, approx. 3hrs (Salveti Praia Hotel; http://salvettipraiahotel.com.br)	Engaging GLU alumni in Global Labour Columns (GLC), (Nicolas Pons-Vignon)	Researching Global Supply Chains (Mark Anner & Praveen Jha)	Organizing Women Workers (Archana Prasad)	Minimum Wages / Inequality (Hansjörg Herr & Neil Coleman)	GLU MOOCs – Using Online Tools for Local Partners (Stefanie Lorenzen)	Financial actors squeeze the supply chains. Lets go beyond the brands and start targeting finance (Christoph Scherrer)	Organizing Methods for TUs (Rebeca Pabon, Rairis Martins & Kristen Schumacher)	Report back from working groups - new research projects / Labour and Renewable Energy (Simone Claar)	Final Departures
10.30 - 11.00	Welcome (Christoph Scherrer/Alumni Planning Team), Intro of Participants - Introduction/overview				Coffee/Tea break				Coffee/Tea break		Coffee/Tea break
11.00 - 12.30	to the situation in Brazil & Latin America (Speakers: GLU alumni Brazil & Latin America)				(different group) Engaging GLU alumni in Global Labour Columns (GLC), (Nicolas Pons-Vignon)	(same group) Researching Global Supply Chains (Mark Anner & Praveen Jha)	(different group) Organizing Women Workers (Archana Prasad)	(same group) Minimum Wages / Inequality (Hansjörg Herr & Neil Coleman)	Excursion: Visit of indigenous tribes and trails nearby (organised by CUT)	(same group) GLU MOOCs – Using Online Tools for Local Partners (Stefanie Lorenzen)	(same group) Financial actors squeeze the supply chains. Lets go beyond the brands and start targeting finance (Christoph Scherrer)		(same group) Organizing Methods for TUs (Rebeca Pabon, Rairis Martins & Kristen Schumacher)	Panel discussion: Trade Union Challenges facing neoliberal advance – View from alumni – CUT Brasil; Moderator: Cyntia Machado
Lunch	12.30-13.30 Lunch at Bar do Gerson				Lunch 12.30-13.45	Lunch 12.30-13.45				Lunch 12.30-13.45			Lunch 12.30-13.45
14.00 - 15.30	2 pm: Opening of GLU Conference at CUT Brazil Headquarters, São Paulo				Welcome, Intro of Programme, Organisational Issues (Alumni Planning Team)	Alumni general meeting (report from GLU SCM, election of representatives, solidarity fund issues, other alumni issues)				Simulation game - Part 1 (Stefanie Lorenzen / Simone Claar / AARS Planning group)			Alumni general meeting
15.30- 16.00			Coffee/Tea break	Coffee/Tea break				Coffee/Tea break		Coffee/Tea break
16.00 - 17.30			Collection/Presentations of ideas for new alumni research projects and establishing working groups	Group Work - new research projects				Panel discussion: Brazil - Impacts of Neoliberalism advance on workers rights, politics and economy; (Hugo Dias / CESIT); Moderator: Gabriel Musso	Simulation game - Part 2 (Stefanie Lorenzen / Simone Claar / AARS Planning group)		Evaluation and Goodbye / Departures
Dinner	8 pm: Dinner at CUT Brazil; 9.30 bus transfer to Campinas	4.30pm: bus transfer from hotel Matiz to BBQ; BBQ at Bank Workers' Union of Campinas	Dinner 19.30	Dinner 19.30				Dinner 19.30		Dinner 19.30
evening								Farewell Party						